MEETING MINUTES OF February 5th, 2019

PRESIDENT'S COMMENTS:

- I want to let you know I will be less active for some time. That said, I will be getting my all-Season Flyers badge for this year. I have begun the phase of my life where I'm taking care of my father. He is home now after a fall. This event has made me thankful for members that may not fly but still come to the field for camaraderie and fresh air.
- The New Years fly-in was fun. Thanks for turning out!
- Mark starts his FIFTH YEAR as club president!

VICE PRESIDENT'S COMMENTS:

- All of the mowers have been moved to the repair shops and will be up and running at full strength for the upcoming season.
- Burger Burn Schedule for 2019 has been worked out, see it in the EVENTS down below.

TREASURER'S REPORT:

- The gate code will be change this month.
- Report accounting info sent to the accountant.
- The AMA charter has been mailed.
- We have $4,010 in savings $4,030 in Checking and $75.51 for total assets of $8,126.51.

OLD BUSINESS:

People earning All-Season Flyer awards for 2018 were awarded the appropriate patches. See the list of who won in last month's newsletter.

MODEL OF THE MONTH DESCRIPTIONS:

Larry Eschman brought his custom modified Twin Nobler U/C plane.
